Meet your friends at the DSRF for a fun social program to round out the summer! Mornings will be spent playing social communication games, movement games, Reader’s Theatre, taking photos, scrapbooking, and working one to one with a BC-certified DSRF teacher to brush up on your reading skills! This is a great opportunity to meet up with old friends from the DSRF and make new ones. The program will be led by an experienced DSRF staff member, Aja Masters, who will be assisted by university students as well as volunteers.

After lunch participants will join DSRF SLP Marla Folden for The Art of Communication, where they will express their creativity through a range of artistic mediums, followed by Hath Yoga. In addition to exploring their artistic side, students will have numerous opportunities to engage in social communication with their peers while they discuss their design choices, comment on others’ work, and share materials.
